EXPLANATION- GUIDELINES

ACCREDITATIONS

York College is a fully accredited member of the Middle States Commission on Higher Education.

York College has been authorized by the New York State Board of Regents to offer its graduates degrees in Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Arts, and Master's degrees. All Degree programs and certificates are registered by the New York State Education Department. York College professional programs are accredited by National Accrediting Agency for Clinical Laboratory Science (NAACLS), Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN), Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE), Accreditation Review Commission on Education for Physician Assistant (ARC-PA), Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs, and The Council for Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) in their respective disciplines. In conjunction with its Baccalaureate programs, York offers certificate programs in Aviation Management, Creole for Professionals, French for Professionals, Mortgage Finance, Spanish for Professionals and Survey Research.

The graduate program in Physician Assistant is accredited by the Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant (ARC-PA). York's MS in Physician Assistant provides educational preparation required for students to sit in for the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants (NCCPA) examination.

CALENDAR

The academic year consists of two semesters of 15 weeks each and shorter winter and summer sessions. Each semester hour represents one fifty-minute period or an equivalent time for shorter sessions. All credit is recorded in semester hours. A minimum of one hundred and twenty (120) credits are required for a Baccalaureate Degree.

TRANSFER CREDITS

Courses taken at other CUNY campuses (CUNY permits) are included in the GPA. All other transfer courses accepted for credit toward the degree (including Study Abroad) are excluded from the GPA.

REPEATED COURSES

Credit is not granted for a repeated course. The CUNY F repeat policy applies to undergraduate courses taken after 1990, from all colleges of The City University, under this policy a student may repeat up to sixteen credits of failed courses at the campus where the F grade was earned. If the second grade is C or higher, the F grade will not be used in the calculation of the cumulative GPA, though all attempts will appear on the record and all grades (including F's) will apply to graduation honors.
